

May 15, 2009

For Immediate Release:

Opening June 5, 2009

Boxcar Gallery is proud to present, Too Much & Not Enough an exhibition featuring the work of members Sarah Quinlan and Neil Bigley. Opening reception First Friday, June 5th from 6-10pm and includes food and live music.

Mixed media artist Sarah Quinlan is interested in the relationship between fashion, womanhood and the domestic life. Her newest work, explores modern nostalgia through print media of the past, where she exposes false identities and ideals that have sold to the public since the 1930's. She focuses her attention, on the use of found objects to symbolize individual identity overcome with the of replication stereotypes.

In Neil Bigley's current work, Parallax, he explores the connection between the nature of consumption and the American consumer. His graphite drawings are filled with images of garbage which question both the values and beliefs that are linked to the obsession with commodity. As twenty first century Americans we are left to deal with the consequences of decades of conspicuous consumption.

Too Much & Not Enough will open First Friday, June 5th from 6-10pm, and runs through July 18th 2009. Closing reception on July 3rd from 6-10pm. Gallery hours are Friday from 4-8pm & Saturday from 12-3pm, or by appointment by calling: 303.725.7047.