

December 16, 2008

For Immediate Release:

New Gallery: Opening January 2nd, 2009

Denver is known for its long and vibrant history of co-op galleries. The majority of those co-ops were spawned by the Art Department of Metropolitan State College of Denver, and the newest on the scene is no exception to that tradition. Boxcar Gallery, founded by recent graduates of MSCD Sarah Quinlan, Javier Flores, Dana Kilcoyne and Neil Bigley, will celebrate its Grand Opening on Friday, January 2nd, 2009.

Boxcar Gallery intends to fill an important niche in Denver's gallery scene by providing a new space for emerging artists to debut their work and transition into the world of the professional artist.

Also important is the history of Boxcar's unique location at 554 Santa Fe Drive, home to previous significant galleries ILK, the Soup, Pod, & Capsule. Founder of ILK and Capsule, Lauri Lynnxe Murphy, is acting as an advisor to the fledgling group.

Boxcar's debut exhibition will be open January 2nd, 2009, and run through February 13th. "Radius: Member Exhibition" will feature member artists Sarah Quinlan, Javier Flores, Dana Kilcoyne, Neil Bigley, Joel Murray, Jessica Hilvitz, Ashley Sands, and Jeremiah Ellis. Boxcar will be reviewing new members in the coming year. Gallery hours are Friday & Saturday from 12 – 5 p.m., or by appointment by calling: 303.725.7047.

For More Information, email boxcargallery@gmail.com, or call Sarah Quinlan at 303.725.7047.