

February 16, 2009

For Immediate Release:

Semi-Annual Juried Exhibition: Opening March 6, 2009

Boxcar Gallery is proud to announce its semi-annual artist juried exhibition, featuring guest juror Mark Sink. This is a unique opportunity for emerging artists to debut their work and have it critiqued by an international photographer. All selected works will be exhibited beginning First Friday, March 6th, 2009.

As a photographer, curator and teacher, Mark Sink has been making a living from fine art photography since 1978. His personal work is in numerous museum collections as well as galleries. Through his career he has documented such artists as Andy Warhol, Jean Michel Basquiat and Rene Ricard. Mark has a history of supporting the local art scene by teaching workshops at The Denver Dark Room and Working with Artists. He has also been the director and curator for exhibitions with the Museum of Contemporary Art as well as founding Gallery Sink.

Boxcar Gallery along with Mark Sink recognizes the importance of supporting the emerging artist by providing a space where artworks can be exhibited and sold. Together, we hope to provide an experience that helps transition students into professionals.

Boxcar Gallery's Semi-Annual Juried Exhibition will open on First Friday March 6th, 2009 and run through March 21st. Boxcar Gallery is currently accepting applications for new members. Gallery hours are Friday & Saturday from 12 – 5 p.m., or by appointment by calling: 303.725.7047.

For More Information, email boxcargallery@gmail.com, or call Sarah Quinlan at 303.725.7047.